

Bend It Like Bollywood

Shiamak Davar is India's No. 1 choreographer specializing in jazz and contemporary Indian dances. He has choreographed several Bollywood movies, stage shows and Indian Movie Awards Nites.

Shiamak has represented India at the Closing Ceremony of the Commonwealth Games Melbourne 2006, world events including the World Economic Forum in Davos, Indo-Japan Friendship Year 2007 inaugural event in Tokyo and Indian Economic Forum in Rome, Italy.

Combining contemporary Indian styles with Western techniques, Shiamak has created his own unique, trademark style called "Shiamak's Indo Jazz Dance Movement" (SIJDM). Originally with two centers in Mumbai, today there are several branches in all the major Indian cities as well as overseas in Toronto and Vancouver, Canada and now in Melbourne Australia.

Shiamak's motto is

"Have feet. Will dance".

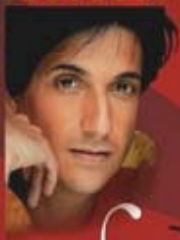

'Bend It Like Bollywood' brought to you by Events India Inc., is a dance spectacular choreographed by Shiamak Davar exclusively for Melbourne audience and dance lovers. Performed by Shiamak's own Indo Jazz Team from Melbourne, the show is a glitzy musical and dance extravaganza that will take the audience through a scintillating and memorable journey of jazz and Indian dances.

With striking visuals, lighting, costumes, fabulous choreography and mesmerizing performances, Shiamak's team promises an evening of pure entertainment and a unique performing arts experience which has never been seen in Melbourne before.

It is a night not to be missed.
